The Former President of the Transvaal Republic Lands at the French Port.

GIVEN AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

In Response to Popular Acclamations He Declared that the Boers Would Never Sacrifice Their Freedem; that They Would Submit to Extermination First.

Marseilles, Nov. 23 .- Paul Kruger, former president of the South African Republic, landed here at 10:45

Mr. Kruger can not but be elated at the warmth of his reception by the people of Marseilles. He may be said to have been borne on an irresistible wave of enthusiasm from the landing stage to his hotel. The broad streets and boulevards through

PRESIDENT KRUGER. which the route lay presented a perfect sea of human beings, all gathered there prompted by the unanimous desire to welcome the aged Boer statesman.

A Storm of Cheering.

From the moment the white, twelve-oared barge left the side of the Gelderland, with Mr. Kruger, who appeared to be in good health, sitting in her stern, surrounded by the Boer representatives, including Mr. Leyds and Messrs. Fischer and Wessels, a storm of cheering broke and never ceased until Mr. Kruger entered his hotel. Even then a vast concourse of people remained in front of the building until Mr. Kruger appeared on the balcony, where he had to remain for some time, uncovered, acknowledging the acclamations of his thousands of admirers, who continued cheering until they were hoarse with shouting.

Will Never Sacrifice Their Freedor Replying to the storm of acclamations from the solid block of thousands of enthusiastic people, Mr. Kruger said the warm reception given him to-day would do much to soothe the wounds in his heart. The Boers, he added, will never sacrifice their freedom. They will rather be exterminated to the last man.

Reply to Welcoming Addresses. Replying to the addresses of welcome of the presidents of the Paris and Marseilles committee, Mr. Kruger spoke in Dutch, and in a low voice, accompanying his words with energetic movements of his hat, which he held in his right hand. After thanking the committees for the warmth of the reception accorded him, and expressing gratitude for the sympathy he had received from the French government, he spoke of the war as terrible and barbarously conducted by the British. He said:

Accuses British of Barbarism. "I have fought with savages, but the present war is even worse. We will never surrender. We are deterined to fight to the last extremity, and if the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State lose their independence, it will be because they have lost every man, woman and

This declaration which Mr. Kruger made dispelled at once any impression that he intends to accept a compromise from the British government. His announcement was greeted with a roar of cheers, and cries of "Vive Kruger," "Vive les Boers," "Vive la Liberte.

An Animated Scene.

The scene at the landing place was animated one. The decks of all the steamers in the Lyons basin were crowded with sightseers. The crowd swelled to great proportions as the news spread through the city that the Gelderland had entered the harbor.

in during the night, cleared away the night, are surrounded by a sheriff's clouds, and morning broke fresh but bright with sunshine. The inner harbor was all the gayer for the decoration of a number of French yachts with multi-colored flags and pennants, among which Boer flags were prominently displayed.

It has been stated that Mrs. Louis Botha, the wife of the Boer general, is a descendant of Robert Emmet, the Irish patriot. This is a mistake. She is a descendant of Emmet's elder brother, Thomas Addis Emmet, who was one of the United .rish directory in 1798 and was punished by the government merely by confinement in Fort George for three years.

No more artistic, inexpensive mount for a black and white can be found than that often used by artists-a sheet of blotting-paper. A collection of prints on thin paper of some choice Salon pictures are backed in this manner and fastened with small brass-headed nails against a plain Mr. Zeller, and in a brotherly way, wall with admirable effect and in view for constant enjoyment. A considerable assortment of color may be had in the paper, and a little care them, with the result that after seven chooses the tint that will best set off the picture.

Upon Ibsen's writing table there always stands a small tray containing a number of grotesque figures-a wooden bear, a tiny devil, two or three cats (one of them playing a fiddle) and some rabbits. Ibsen has said: "I never write a single line of any bly the greater part of the United of my dramas without having that tray and its occupants before me on my table. I could not write without none more than the good Brother, them. But why I use them is my own who feels that he was instrumental

No tissue, function, or organ of the body escapes its ravages; muscles wither, nerves shatter, and secretions dry up under its blighting presence. So stubborn and difficult is this disease that to invent a remedy to cure chronic catarrh has been the ambi-

When he got home he found he had neglected to give his wife the other half of the torn bill, and a few days later he received a letter from his wife reminding him of the fact, and saying she had torn a dollar bill in two and given half of it to the porter. Somewhere along the line there must be a wild-eyed darky with the halves of two worthless bills in his possession and a firm conviction that he has been worked by some sort of a new flimflam game. Meanwhile, the Detroit man is anxious to find out what sort of reasoning his wife used when she gave that porter a half instead of the whole of that one dollar bill.—San Francisco Argonaut.

HELPED THE CHIEF.

How a Loyal Engineer Did His Brother Great Service.

Meadville, Pa., Nov. 26, 1900 .- (Special.)—The Loyalty of the Members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is proverbial. A circumstance occurred in this city some days ago, which emphasizes this feeling. Frank J. Zeller is Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers No. 143. He is extremely popular among his fellow railway men, and one of the best known Engineers running out of Meadville. When the announcement was made a short time ago that Frank was pretty sick, it caused a great deal of regret among the boys. Soon he was missed from his engine, having had to "lay off" on account of his back. A brother of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who had been ill with similar symptoms, some time before, and who had been pulled through, called to see took with him a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, the Remedy which had cured him. He advised Mr. Zeller to try boxes had been used, he was entirely well, and able to work.

In an interview Mr. Zeller states: "I had suffered for four years with this affliction, being often kept awake The number of new books printed at night with pains, and at times unable to work. I tried several of the advertised remedies, and found that they did me no earthly good. Finally, a member of our Order, who had been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills brought me a box, and asked me to try them. I had little faith in them, but as a drowning man grasps at a straw to help him, no I took the Pills. I used seven boxes. and am to-day as well and strong a man as there is in Pennsylvania."

Naturally, Mr. Zeller feels very grateful, and his complete recovery has delighted his many friends, and in saving the life of the Chief.
